

CLDDV 105 Spring 2010

Unit Assignments: All assignments will be typed and free of grammatical errors.

Assn #1: Antibully Poster. Utilizing creativity, develop an 8 ½ by 11 inch poster for children ages 6-11 years of age. Due February 4, 2010

Assn #2: Choose an advertisement from a teen magazine or paper and describe in detail why an adolescent would find the advertisement appealing or aesthetic. Describe what type of adolescent would be drawn to the advertisement and what you think the message from the advertisement conveys to the adolescent. Due March 4, 2010

Assn #3: Choose a television program to observe, please include name of program observed. The program should be for middle childhood to adolescence. This observation assignment should address the questions below. Due April 1, 2010

Was there a difference in how often males and females played lead roles?

-If so, what impact do you feel this has on school-age viewers?

What was the dominant culture or ethnic group and what was the lead(s) dominant culture/ethnic group represented in the program?

Describe the prosocial and antisocial behaviors modeled by the female and male characters.

What was the role (if any) of adults in the program?

What influence can this show have on a child's behavior?

*Due dates can be changed by instructor with prior notice to students.